

K-LOVE is the ONLY station that plays Christian music in my area. I'm not fond of hard rock or really any of the other stations here. K-LOVE helps to keep "family friendly" music and programming available to those of us who prefer it, if they were displaced, we would have a very difficult time finding other stations which provide anything close to them.